Easy Credit Card Verifier is an application that can do just that. It's developed using the LUHN10 or Luhn algorithm which was created to validate identification numbers for a number of devices and products, including credit cards. With it, you can verify cards numbers from Master Card, Visa, EnToute, Diners Club, Amex, JCB, Discover and Carte Blanche. All of these can be checked in the comfort of your home or workplace without needing to send them online or any other place for this kind of verification. This way, you don't have to waste time or money to get the result you need. The application itself displays a more than comprehensive interface. It doesn't make the identification process any harder than it needs to be. To check a card number all you have to do is insert the actual sequence of numbers that the card has and click the "Check" button. In case a number is not valid, the application displays a message that tells you so. Otherwise, you get a confirmation message that lets you know that the card is valid along with the brand it belongs to. It's as simple as that. Probably the hardest things about the application are the fact that you have to type in the card number and you do need to be careful. One missing or wrong number and the application might give you a negative result. In case you have to deal with a large number of cards, the application provides you with a copy function that copies the card number to the Clipboard. Too bad it only takes out the number and not also the verification result. All-in-all, Easy Credit Card
